Bears don't belong in the trash.

Help keep them wild.

2013 Bear Aware

YOUTH FILM CONTEST

California Department of Fish and Wildlife (CDFW) invites high school students in the San Gabriel Valley area to create a short film educating the public about how to keep black bears wild. Key messages and bear footage are provided.

Prizes: 1st place $500, 2nd place $300, 3rd place $200

Entries must be post-marked or delivered by April 24, 2013.

Films should be no more than 3 minutes and include Bear Aware messages provided by CDFW. The films should educate the public on how to keep bears in the wild by responsibly storing and disposing of human food and trash.
